

Holiday Homes for Rent in Hacienda La Ermita, Murcia

Town House, 2 Bedroom

A stunning newly built three-storey town house with private sun deck with two bedrooms to sleep up to four people. Located five minutes away from the brand new Roda golf course, this property is ideally suited for those looking to get in a game of golf whilst away in this beautiful location.

The village of Dolores de Pacheco is the capital of the Roda area and it is well serviced with shops, bars, a medical centre, sports centre and school to make your life a lot easier. It is a village which retains its rural feeling, where the friendly and hospitable inhabitants live a traditional way of life.

Close by are several brand new golf courses, and it is just 10 minutes drive to San Javier airport. The clear beaches in the quiet Mar Menor are not far away either. Enjoy also the cultural life of the nearby towns of San Javier, Los Alcázares, San Pedro and Torre Pacheco and the proximity to big cities such as Cartagena and Murcia more than 2000 years old full of history and social events.

For those looking for more adventure, a visit to the La Manga strip will prove rewarding. It contains along its length specialist clubs who cater for hang gliding, parachuting and most watersports. There is a go-karting track and a roller skating rink.

For those who prefer quieter activities, visit the preserved area of 'Parque de Calbanque' and overlooking the Mediterranean is 'Sierra de Cartagena', an ideal location for hill walking, climbing and mountain biking

The houses of this development border a communal recreation area with a swimming pool and beautiful gardens with fountains.
